

Ingrid

The Ingrid family

The Ingrid chair is reminiscent of a beautiful Danish blonde. The light-coloured wood base evokes a slender athletic form. This simple yet sophisticated chair is a classic in the making.

80 cm 47 cm 48 cm

45 kg

2/doos

0.3

12.2

CRIB 5

on request

Ruggedeelte

Cross with double tennon going in double morten

Opbouw

Crossframe with two cornerbacks

Romp

Solid beech frame, plywood seat and back beech

Zitting

Back plywood multiply: 12 mm thick beech veneer

Glijders

Standard

Stoffering

Standard upholstery: Others on request

ZET offers other configurations as well. Just ask us!

Related products

Ingrid 03 +A

This chair is an armchair and has an upholstery

Ingrid K62

This chair is a barstool

Designed by Luc Vincent

Luc Vincent is a Belgian product and graphic designer who works and lives in Brussels. He cannot be pigeonholed into one particular discipline. He's a versatile designer with a focus on functionality

Craftmanship

Onze werkwijze

Our expertise in production techniques and design thinking was obtained through 4 generations of experience in the field. Together with the fully equipped, efficient contemporary production unit in Belgium, this forms the foundation of our brand's ambition. The aim is to bring people, nature and design together in high quality products.

Vrije tekstruimte

